Re: Proposed Order without Opposing Counsel's Consent
Case: Peanuts Worldwide, LLC, v. The Partnerships, etc., Schedule A 21-cv-05331

Dear Judge Alonso,

Please allow this to serve as my Letter Motion seeking the Court's execution of the attached Order.

As the Court may recall, yesterday my motion to dissolve the restraining order issued in this case against Sensible Store was granted. The Court directed counsel to try and submit an Order on Consent.

I do not have opposing counsel's consent even though the issuance of the attached Order, as written, will not harm Plaintiff's interests. Opposing counsel asked for time to confer with his client, which I understand, but each day causes needless damages. Opposing counsel was informed that if he was unable to consent by the end of the business day, I would file this Letter Motion.

Opposing counsel correctly pointed out to me earlier today that neither of us can identify which of the 196 defendants on Schedule A is causing my client's Amazon account to be restrained. However, my client's Amazon was clearly restrained because of the Order per the email received from Amazon that specifically identifies this case. An exact copy of the verbiage of the email from Amazon is below:

We are writing to inform you that your disbursements from your seller account have been placed on hold. We took this action in accordance with a Temporary Restraining Order issued by a federal court. Items that infringe another party's copyright, patent, trademark, design right, database right, or other intellectual property or other proprietary right are prohibited. For more information on this policy, search on "Prohibited Content" in seller Help.
